Colin Kilrain is a unique individual. You wouldn't think he was as accomplished as he is because most people at his level of achievement have some visible signs of bravado, an outward show of self-esteem, or a bit of ego, and he shows none of the aforementioned. In first meeting Colin or if you know him and you are reconnecting, it would be easy to dig right in to ask him what he's been up to because he's at the highest level of the military and its political arena or you would feel compelled to talk to him about his unbelievable wrestling career. No matter how you start the conversation, you will quickly find yourself answering questions about yourself, your family, what's going on in your life, while in between your replies he is totally engrossed with positive comments about what you have to say. When you try to ask him personal questions, he will answer them with a short polite answer and then redirect the conversation to something about you. This isn't because he isn't a proud man, I'm sure he is, but because he puts a high value on those he engages with. Colin is perhaps one of if not the humblest people you will meet; he shows a keen interest in everything and anything that is important to you.

Vice Admiral Colin J. Kilrain(ret.), USN; Naval Special Warfare (NSW) SEAL; National Wrestling Hall of Fame (NWHOF) Stillwater, Class of 2014 Outstanding American; NWHOF Massachusetts Chapter, Class of 2011 Outstanding American; EIWA Hall of Fame, Class of 199; Lehigh University Athletic Hall of Fame, Class of 2007; Braintree (MA) High School Athletic Hall of Fame, Class of 1999, recently retired from active duty in the United States Navy. Kilrain is the definition of the words exceptional, committed, elite, humble, accomplished, selfless and so many other exemplary adjectives that it's impossible to list them all. And as many as you could list, they are all understatements and wouldn't start to give you a true glimpse of the man.

In high school Kilrain won state wrestling titles, New England public high school and AAU titles, a Prep National title, and a Junior National freestyle gold medal in the sport of wrestling. A long-time student and close friend of Olympic wrestler and Olympic coach Jim Peckham, Colin started wrestling in junior high school and had access to many clubs and teams to help him develop his skills. Braintree High School, the Quincy YMCA, the Boston Young Men's Christian Union ("the Union ") and Coach Jim Peckham's garage, where many national and world level wrestlers often frequented, were a few places he trained in high school. Whenever Colin's name was mentioned in Coach Peckham's presence, the coach would perk up and reel off many of the attributes that Colin displayed and why others should absolutely aspire to his level of dedication. While attending Lehigh University Kilrain continued to achieve wrestling glory. He was the NCAA 167-pound freshman of the year and one of only 12 individuals to ever win four EIWA titles in the leagues 118-year history. Kilrain was also voted the most outstanding wrestler and earned the Fletcher Memorial Award recipient (most tournament team points over a career) at the EIWA tournament championships. He was ranked number one in the country nine times throughout his career, beating numerous All Americans and four National champions. Kilrain went on to place third at the NCAA Division I tournament three times. Post college he won and was voted most valuable wrestler at the Canada Cup, then won the United States Open, both in the freestyle discipline. During his college and senior open career, he had victories over four eventual Olympic champions.

As accomplished as his wrestling career was, his military career in the Navy reflected his work ethic and dedication to the United States to even higher levels. Because of Kilrain's military assignments in the SEAL's, much of what he did and accomplished will never be known as it is classified as top secret. What we do know is that he was extremely accomplished and highly decorated. Just A few of the decorations earned by Kilrain include: four Defense Superior Service Medals, two Legion of Merit Medals, and five Bronze Stars. Kilrain entered the Navy in 1985 as an ensign. After completion of OCS, he entered BUD/S training graduating in '86. After Seal Tactical training he was assigned to Seal Team Two as an officer and earned the right of platoon leader status. Going through numerous training assignments and educational advancements, he earned a Master of Science degree. Kilrain's assignments and promotions are a reflection of his work ethic and his selfless dedication to the Navy and his teammates.

It's not plausible to list all of the accomplishments, heroic acts of bravery and selfless behavior that Colin exhibited during his numerous roles with the Navy, but the following will give an understanding of his assignments and where his tours took him. He has participated in special operations in Asia, Europe, Latin America, Africa, and the Middle East. Operational Tours in Naval Special Warfare include: SEAL Team Three; the Personal Exchange Program (PEP) with the German Navy Kampfschwimmer Kompanie (SEALS) in Eckenfelder, Germany; Naval Special Warfare Development Group (DEVGRU/Team 6); Commander, Special Operations Command in Panama; Executive Officer of Naval Special Warfare Unit Two in Stuttgart, Germany; Commander, Naval Special Warfare Group Two, and Spec Ops adviser on board USS Dwight Eisenhower.

His staff assignments include duty as operations officer for the State Department's Office of Counterterrorism; Joint Special Operations Command, as deputy commander of the Joint Reconnaissance Task Force; Executive Office of the President at the White House, where he served on the NSC (National Security Council) as the director of Strategy and Policy for the Office of Combating Terrorism; and senior defense officer at the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City, Mexico. As a rear admiral, he served as assistant commander of Joint Special Operations Command in 2013, followed by assignment to Camp H. M. Smith Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, as commander, Special Operations Command Pacific from 2014 to 2016. As Vice Admiral, he served as Commander, NATO Special Operations Headquarter, Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE) from 2016 to 2019. As Vice Admiral, he served as Associate Director for Military Affairs (ADMA) for the Central Intelligence Agency from 2019 to 2021 and Assistant to the Joint Chiefs of Staff from 2021 to 2023.

Kilrain has deployed on contingency or named operations to Central and South America, the Horn of Africa, the Caribbean, the Balkans, Iraq, Yemen, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.

Kilrain holds a Master of Science degree in National Resources Strategy and Management from the National Defense University's Industrial College of the Armed Forces and is a graduate of the Defense Language Institute and is fluent in four languages. Colin is the father of four children and husband to his wife Susan who was a Navy fighter pilot, a graduate of Test Pilot school, and an astronaut. Susan flew two shuttle missions, STS 83 and STS 94. Colin's commitment to his wrestling career, his time in the military, and to his family has been exemplary and a true reflection of his ethos and dedication. His sacrifices to his country go far beyond any expectation the military could or would ask of him. Because of the actions he took in his commands the United States, as well as many other countries, were and are safer places. Simply put, if you are a dad, you want him to marry your daughter or be your son; if you are a young person, someone of Colin's age, or someone a little older, you'd want him to be your brother.
